

Julie Watson
Caritas Coach
Woman in Charge of Global Caritas Community
Watson Caring Science Institute

Bio

Julie Watson is honoured to support The Watson Caring Science Institute (WCSI) with their global activities including directorship of Lotus Library, a WCSI Imprint. As a Caritas Coach she works with nurses and other Healthcare professionals throughout the world to inform and contribute to the values of Human Caring. Her work includes event management of conferences such as the Arts Health & Humanity Conference (UK), as well as the Nurses in the Middle East Conference (Jordan).

An experienced communication, marketing & events manager she also works as a consultant to the arts, health, cultural & digital industries. Previously, Julie founded and was Director of an educational charity for disadvantaged young people in the UK. She holds a BFA from Bennington College, Vermont, USA, and an MA in 'Arts and Cultural Management' from Sussex University, UK. She sits on the Board of Trustees for Brighton Therapy Centre. She is also a practicing artist.

Her life compass has forever been informed by the ethos and values of her mother Jean Watson. She is delighted to be supporting the wonderful work of WCSI. Further information can be found here.
